

Good-Bye Hot Comb

There is one sure way that has never failed to make Knotty, Kinky hair straight without the use of hot combs.

KAP-O-LINE isn't one of those fake hair treatment offers you have seen so many times. KAP-O-LINE has the endorsement of every reputable doctor, and guaranteed by the manufacturer. This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon. KAP-O-LINE has been sold under absolute money-back guarantee for more than fifteen years. It is especially compounded by trained chemists in the largest manufacturing laboratories of toilets in the Southwest. As a treatment for falling hair, dandruff and all scalp diseases, making the hair soft, fluffy and lustrous, is not greasy nor gummy.

The Kap-O-Line Way To Make Knotty, Kinky Hair Straight

The hair must be thoroughly washed. We recommend KAP-O-LINE Shampoo, as it puts the hair and scalp in a clean, antiseptic condition. Then apply thoroughly KAP-O-LINE every night for six nights, brushing and combing the hair thoroughly night and morning. After six days' treatment you will have a gift of beautiful straight hair, full of life and vigor. Just such hair you are promised once you start the use of KAP-O-LINE.

Price of KAP-O-LINE, 35 cents; KAP-O-LINE Shampoo, 50 cts. Sold by most druggists, or mailed upon receipt of price and your druggist's name. Manufactured by STONE & CO., Perfumers, Dallas, Texas.

Agents Wanted—An opportunity to make big profits if you have little money to invest as our exclusive agent.

WOULD SAVE WOMAN FROM HANGMAN'S NOOSE

(A. N. P. Service)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30—Josephine Berry under sentence of death for the murder of Ada King, who was murdered for alleged interference with her love affair, expects a life sentence. In his report on the girl to the board of charities, Superintendent Charles C. Foster, criminologist of the District penal institutions, says: "Josephine Berry's case presents an unusual phase. She is seemingly a representative of that type classed by Dr. Lombroso as being midway between the lunatic and the savage. Josephine, awaiting definite action as to execution, beheld the arrival of her sister, Edna Giles, to be tried for manslaughter and heard from her the statement: 'The old man (meaning father is in jail, too, for manslaughter.'"

"Rarely in America, is the woman given the extreme penalty. Always the jury acquits or the final outcome is modification of the decree of crime."

Effort is being made to have the girl's sentence commuted, but this is very much doubted, as President Wilson is not known to reverse his decision after passing on a death sentence. Attorney Harry L. Tignor is counsel for the condemned woman his contract price will not drop, nor his interest.

There is a strong demand for labor in the South, and yet the people have not ceased coming to the North, they say, to their disgust at the manner in which lynchings continue to prevail, without any special effort to prevent them. With every lynching, hundreds of people drop everything and leave for some Northern community.

It is not fear that brings them away nearly so much as it is a determination to embarrass and awaken the South to the folly of its ways of human justice.
